

Kay Bo Rivye (House by the River)

From our home in Haiti to your home....
We wish you a

Merry Christmas!!!
Jwaye Nowel!!!

We pray that this Christ-filled greeting finds all of you happy, healthy and ready for this Christmas season.

This year has been filled with so much, it is hard to even remember what all has happened during the year. We are finally settled in our new and final Haitian home, we don't intend to move again! Ha! It has been a long year constructing it and getting it ready to be lived in. There is still a lot to do, more bathrooms to finish, bunk beds to make, storage areas, yard work, and painting to do etc. We feel so blessed to be living in Marfranc that it doesn't matter what the house looks like, as long as we are here.

We found ourselves very busy this year with almost 60 visitors from many different churches working together to help build Kay Bo Rivye, the first elementary school building at the Marfranc church, painting of the church and new school rooms, Bible School activities, Sunday School activities, Music programs, and so many more things.

We can always list the physical projects and activities and the many, many gifts and monetary things that visitors have done. However, the most important things that were done this year, were not just monetary or physical, but emotional and spiritual. This year 60 people came to Haiti to love the people of Marfranc and they did that plus more. They gave from their hearts and shared God's love with people they didn't know and in return were loved back. We have seen some amazing friendships begin this year and can't wait to watch them grow and grow as time goes on.

During this Christmas season we are thankful for all that we have and all that we have been blessed with this year. There are no words to express our thanks to all of you that are on this Haitian journey with us. Thank you for your love, your support, your encouragement, your prayers and just being our brothers and sisters in Christ. We love you all and ask for your continued prayers throughout this next year. We know God has some exciting things in store for us and are excited about this next year.

May God continue to bless you and keep you safe.....
